SCOTLAND SCHOOL FOR VETERANS CHILDREN

SCOTLAND, PENNSYLVANIA

PURPOSE

OUR BOOK WAS PREPARED TO PRESERVE IN WORD AND IN PICTURE THE EVENTS OF A GREAT YEAR IN A GREAT SCHOOL — A SCHOOL AS MODERN AND AS FORWARD LOOKING IN ITS PHILOSOPHY AS OUR THEME.

ALMA MATER

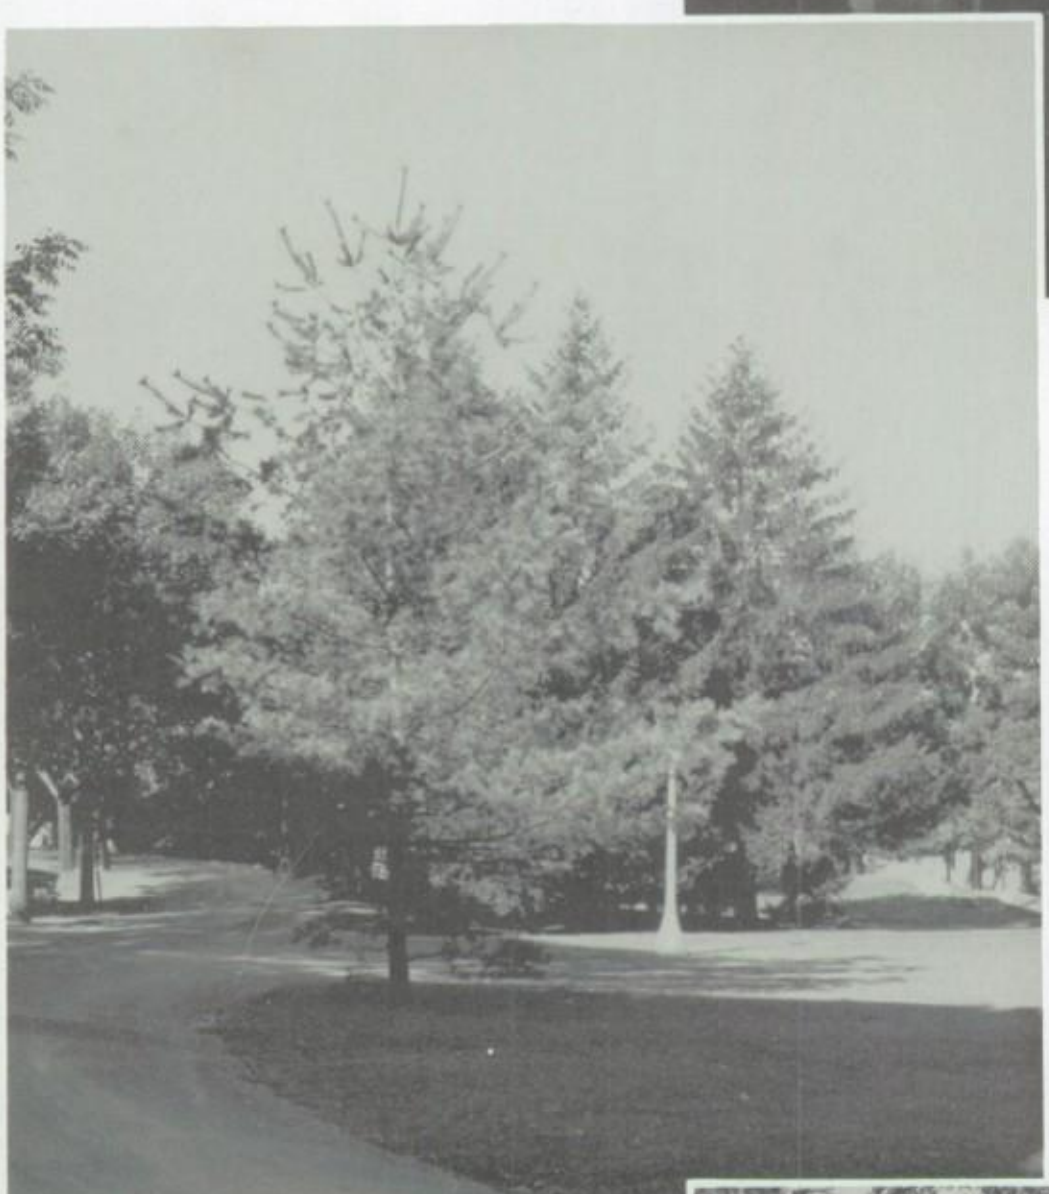
We rise here now to sing her praises,
Alma Mater true.
The mountains echo every word,
Our loyalty to you.
From cottage number one
To grads now in the sun,
We pledge our faith and give our hearts
To dear old Scotland School.



Few graduating classes in this day of sprawling, functionally designed school buildings can look back on a school career completed in such pleasant surroundings. Our school building, in the early morning sunlight of a spring day, is bathed in pristine beauty.

FAMILIAR

At the Top: The old main building, greatly changed by remodeling and redecorating, looks out toward the mountains much the same as it did sixty-six years ago. Center: A large duplex type cottage in the small community of cottages. This is home to a group of twenty-four young fellows. At the Bottom: A view of the new swimming pool through the beech trees. This is our newest building and just about the most popular.

BUILDINGS

At the Top: Looking down through the heart of the cottage area. Beautiful homes, attractively landscaped face each other across an expanse of green lawn. Center: One of four single cottages in the new area with every facility for gracious living. At the Bottom: A front view of the school chapel. Here is held church services, Sunday School, plays, concerts, entertainments, and movies which makes it a busy place most every day of the year.

As we happily yet reluctantly end our stay at Scotland School, we wish to express our gratitude to all those who in any way contributed to our well being during the years we have spent here. Our thanks, to begin at the beginning, go out to the citizens of our great commonwealth whose taxes helped to support our school; to the administrative and legislative branches of our state government for their wise apportionment of funds; to our dedicated Board of Trustees, faculty, and staff for their time and patience; to the various service organizations and their auxiliaries for their great interest and their material help along the way; and to our many many friends who have always seemed to b e l i e v e that nothing was too good for Scotland School.

ACTIVITIES

THE YEARBOOK

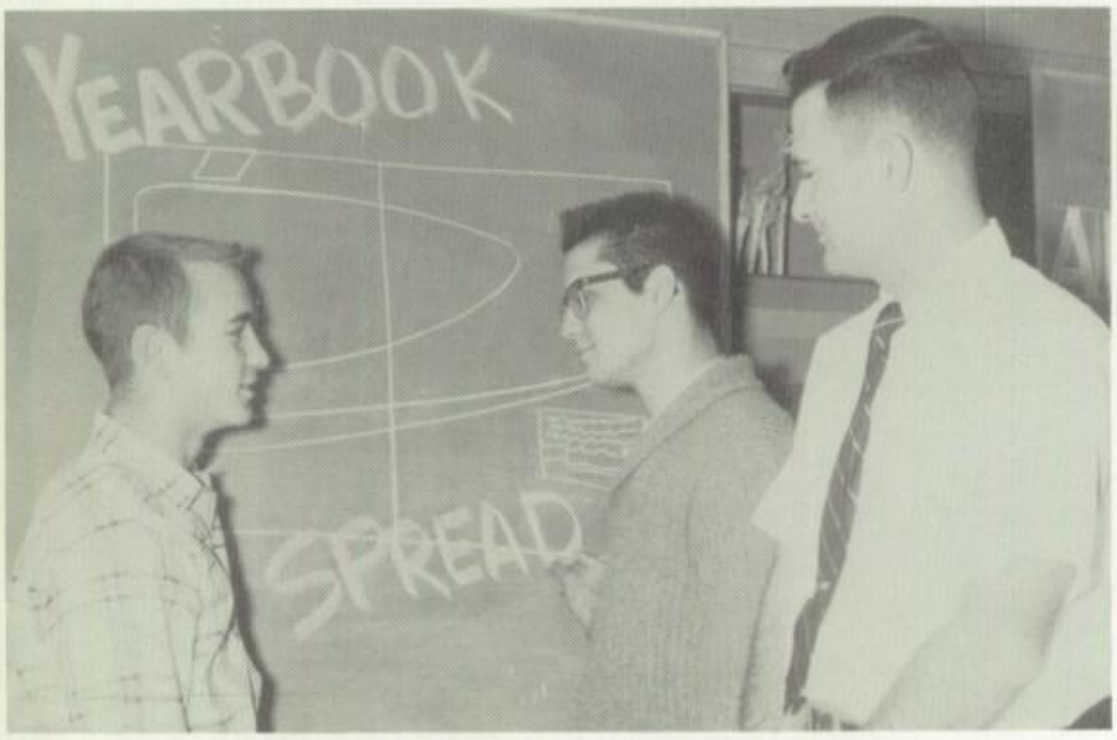
TAPS FOR 1961, edited and published by the senior class, had its beginning away back in October. From a jumbled heap of layout mats, photographs, and scribbled copy, it grew into the beautiful book you have now in your hands. Here Mr. Goldstrohm, a beaming advisor, surrounded by part of his staff begins the long job of building a yearbook. Jim Baysinger, Mary Jane Negley, Bob Hughes, and Judy Kelso have high hopes.



The cover design, art work, lettering, and layouts were in the capable hands of William Reibsome and Ronald Talarico. They, with the ever present advice of Mr. Boss, our art supervisor, spent long hours over a drawing board in the art room.

Seated: Judy Kelso, Sue Shellenberger, Donna Watson, Mary Jane Negley. Standing: Ronald Talarico, Robert Hughes, William Reibsome, James Baysinger.

THE COURIER

THE SCOTLAND COURIER is published each month during the school year by a staff of students under the direction of Miss Helen Miller of the English department. It contains news of events of interest to the student body, alumni, and friends of the school. Here Miss Miller assists three of her staff, Joan Stephey, Sue Shellenberger, and Donna Watson, in the preparation of copy.

The copy is then linotyped, printed, folded, and mailed in the school vocational print shop. Here Robert Hendricks, John Herr, Robert Hughes, and James Baysinger look on as Mr. Sanders, Print Shop instructor locks up the chase on another issue.

Seated: Joan Stephey, Judy Wall, Sue Shellenberger, Donna Watson, Catherine Delaney.
Standing: Paul Hanyon, John Herr, James Baysinger.

THE SCOTLAND

HERE COMES THE BAND

With roll of drums and the crash of cymbals the band swings out for its final appearance of the season at the dress parade on Commencement Day.

MAJORETTES

BAND SENIORS

This group of versatile and experienced musicians have performed their last concert and marched in their last parade at Scotland School.

BAND DIRECTOR

Mr. Singel, at ease with any instrument, runs through a difficult number for the benefit of Donna Watson, senior performer on the oboe.

DRUM MAJORS

Tom Campbell and Robert Hollinger display a combined twelve foot plus of nattily attired, high stepping drum majors.

MORE MUSIC

The blare of trumpets, the trill of clarinets, and the roll of drums is never ending in the band practice room. From all this, in time, evolves a group of young musicians who can play anything from swing to the finest symphony.

DANCE BAND

HALF TIME FINALE

The football pep band never failed to put on a good half time show. Week after week they could be counted upon to come up with some new and clever routine to entertain the fans. Under the baton of student director, Robert Smith, a stirring arrangement of the Alma Mater closes the show.

HERE COMES THE BAND

Commencement Day marks the final appearance for the year of the fine Scotland band. Here they head for the parade ground to take part in their farewell performance before their largest audience. After the Dress Parade, instruments and uniforms will be put away for another year.

DRAMATICS

Those interested in the Dramatic Arts naturally banded together and formed a club which was sponsored by Mr. Plavny, the school librarian. Competing with the many other activities on the schedule both for time and for talent, they met irregularly to further the cause of the theater and its arts.

DRAMATIC CLUB

Sitting: B. Miller, K. Deyarmin, J. Wall, J. Kelso, D. Watson, J. Twaddle, M. Shultz. Standing: R. Harrison, Mr. Plavny, R. Peelman, R. Metzgar, R. Fochler, G. Conrad, J. Hoover, J. Negley, G. Haugh, J. Crownover, W. Hayden, J. Conrad.

THE PLAYERS

SITTIN' PRETTY, a Drama Guild comedy in three acts, was the main event on the Dramatic Club's program this year. Members who gave a great performance included: Sitting: R. Fochler, B. Beckner, J. Steele, J. Conrad. Standing: K. Deyarmin, G. Haugh, S. Schmeck, C. Bullock, M. Shultz, K. Gross, B. Miller, and D. Watson.

BEHIND THE SCENES

Much of the success of a good play is due to the efforts of a few who seldom receive the applause of an appreciative audience. The stage setting, the props, the lights, and the direction are, many times, as important as the players. Those responsible for these included James Crownover and John DiRemiggio who made up the stage crew, Janet Twaddle who was the prompter, and Mr. Plavny who directed the whole show.

MRS. CONSTANCE C. HAULMAN, Choral Director.

The boys and girls of Scotland School learn to sing early and they sing often as they move up through the grades. The fine mixed chorus of over fifty well trained voices is the culmination of this long range program. From this reservoir of talent Mrs. Haulman, new to our teaching staff this year, could present a variety of choral ensembles to fill any program need. There were some fine soloists, a boys chorus, a girls chorus, and a church choir who could and did sing beautifully on many an occasion throughout the school year.

BOYS QUARTET

GIRLS SEXTET

CHURCH CHOIR

ART CLUB

The talents of this versatile group have been often in demand for a number of school projects during the year. A beautifully decorated gym on several occasions, attractive stage settings, colorful displays, and clever posters are only a few of their contributions.

BEAUTY CULTURE

The evidence of the fine service that the Beauty Culture girls render to their school is all about us. The hair of our almost two hundred girls is always well cared for and attractive. Taking care of this many heads is no mean task.

Seated: Pat Metzgar, Lois Kennedy, Faye Ford, Donna Ringler. Standing: Mr. Schaffer, Marjorie Laye, Sylvia Shrawder.

BOY SCOUTS

Scotland School Troop 141 of the Boy Scouts of America is composed of sixty-three boys from grades six, seven, and eight. Mr. Shields and Mr. Boss from the school faculty are Scoutmasters. In addition to their daily good deed, these scouts take care of the parking and serve as guides. The patrol leaders include:

VISUAL AIDS CLUB

This group, trained in the use and care of the equipment in the audio-visual aids department, were under the supervision of Mr. John Kanuk, popular shop instructor. They were on call to set up and operate a projector for any group that needed their services.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS

The eight girls who served as Sunday School teachers made a splendid contribution to the spiritual life of the younger boys and girls. They have been faithful throughout the school year and their efforts have been appreciated.

Seated: Ethel Weigel, Faye Ford, Kathy Deyarmin, Donna Watson. Standing: Joan Stephey, Lorraine Steele, Sue Shellenberger, Mary Jane Negley.

CADET OFFICERS

The older boys at Scotland have traditionally been organized into a cadet corps of four or more drill companies. The officers of the corps are outstanding boys in the junior and senior classes. They are in command during drill and in parades, they supervise details in the boys' quarters and have other duties involving responsibility.

Front: Lieutenant Schreck, Captain Hayden, Major Baysinger, Lieutenant Crownover, Lieutenant Fink. Back: Lieutenant Woods, Lieutenant McCleaf, Lieutenant Spittler, Lieutenant Skillman.

HERE COME THE FIGHTING CADETS

VARSITY COACH

William C. Peck

THEY WON FIVE

Scotland 7 Big Spring 0

The fighting Cadets got off to a flying start with a close win over Big Spring. A Dorsey to Spittler pass in the fourth quarter and a plunge by Jim McClinnhan for the point after touchdown made the difference.

Scotland 33 Carson Long 0

The Cadets from Carson Long were no match for the Cadets from Scotland. They were completely outclassed and it was an effort to keep the score down.

Scotland 18 Biglerville 14

The Cadets pulled the biggest upset of the season when they canned the undefeated Canners from Biglerville. Fine play by Reg Fochler, E. Skillman, and Hollinger gave them a big homecoming Day win.

Scotland 32 Juniata Joint 14

The Indians from Juniata Joint were given a good scalping when the Cadets got rolling. Touchdowns by Fochler, the brothers Skillman, and two from the fleet Gelet rolled up the score.

Scotland 25 Boonesboro 0

Cadet speed was too much for the Warriors from south of the border Boonesboro. Gelet had on his running shoes and scored twice. E. Skillman and sophomore Parker also got into the act.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

AND LOST FIVE

Shippensburg 19 Scotland 0

The Cadets gave it a good try but were overrun by the swift Greyhounds from neighboring Shippensburg.

Southwestern 20 Scotland 13

The Scotland boys almost had this one but the Mustangs from Hanover galloped over them for three touchdowns in the last quarter.

Waynesboro 33 Scotland 7

The hard running Waynesboro Warriors were on the warpath and handed the Cadets their third setback.

South Huntingdon 19 Scotland 0

A much improved eleven from Orbisonia came down from the hills to give the Cadets a real jolt.

East Pennsboro 26 Scotland 7

Defeat number five was the result of a rough afternoon with the strong Panther squad from Enola.

FOOTBALL COACHING STAFF

Mr. Peck, Mr. McKenzie, Mr. Katusin, Mr. Heckler, Mr. Mader, Mr. Lesher, Mr. McKay.

ACTION IN THE BIG HOMECOMING DAY GAME

MANAGERS

William Reibsome, Richard Imes, James Jones, Kenneth Gross.

The minor league football teams of Scotland compiled an enviable record and made the varsity coaches look happily toward next season. The Junior Varsity coached by Mr. McKay went through a tough eight game schedule and dropped but two games. The Junior High squad split even in a six game schedule with a big win over Chambersburg Central thrown in. They were tutored by Mr. McKenzie and Mr. Lesher.

JUNIOR HIGH SQUAD

FIELD HOCKEY

Mrs. Katusin, Coach; Sylvia Shrawder and Faye Ford, Co-Captains.

This was definitely not a vintage year for the Hockey team. Despite their best efforts, the Lassies were able to garner only two wins and a tie out of a chilly eight game schedule. There were many thrilling moments and some exciting plays which gave the predominately feminine fans something to cheer about but still there were only two wins.

Muscles were stiff, fingers were numb with cold, bruises were frequent, play was rough and aggressive, but goals were hard to come by in the chill autumn air. The Lassies gave their all even though the cause was often lost.

Varsity coach, Mr. Frey, and Junior Varsity coach, Mr. Peck, watch intently as their boys perform.

CHAMPIONS IN ACTION

Coach Frey and his young aggregation of fast moving cagers made it big once again in area basketball competition. Their impressive win seventeen, lose one league record gave them the Franklin County championship for the umpteenth time. Only Greencastle, perennial rival for league honors, was able to beat them and that loss was avenged later in the season. A lone senior, ball hawking Gary Baker; junior co-captains, Richard Dubose and Robert Hollinger, the team's high scorers; junior Harry Dorsey, set shot artist; and Torrell Parker, yet a sophomore, made up the first team. They enter the PIAA playoffs for possible district and state honors as the yearbook goes to press.

VARSITY SENIORS

TOM CAMPBELL did not start many games but he was one of the first to go in when a regular faltered.

REGIS FOCHLER could always be counted upon when the team needed a lift.

GARY BAKER was the little man on the squad but his constant hustle earned him a guard spot on the first team.

ELWOOD SKILLMAN saw plenty of action as part of the "good bench" the varsity squad was blessed with.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

Kneeling: D. Hughes, T. McMullen, D. Cowan, F. Hibshman, J. Negley. Standing: G. Lemon, K. Ross, P. Dubose, J. Herr, J. Honeycutt, J. Howard, K. Hockenberry.

JUNIOR HIGH BASKETBALL

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The 1961 girls basketball team was not the best ever to represent the school nor was its win column overly long. However, things are definitely looking up in that department. While there were only two wins posted in the regularly scheduled eight games, most of the contests were hard fought right down to the final whistle and were decided by close margins. With a good coach, a large group of the younger girls moving up and eager for action, plus the traditional Scotland will to win as assets, there is little doubt but that better things are in the offing.

Girls athletic coach Mrs. Shirley Katusin, new to the staff this year, and her senior co-captains, Marjorie Laye and Lorraine Steele. Marjorie was an aggressive guard while Lorraine at forward scored her share of the points.

CHEERLEADERS

Scotland teams can always depend upon the noisy encouragement of this fine group of energetic cheerleaders. The varsity squad and their junior apprentices set the tempo for every athletic encounter and squeezed the last drop of enthusiasm from the highly partisan spectators. Win or lose, they were for our side all the way.

Judy goes all out.

TRACK

Track coaches, MR. FRED BOSS and MR. ROY SHIELDS check the statistics of. another successful meet in the presence of Richard Fochler who garnered his share of points throughout the season.

1960 TRACK SQUAD

Kneeling: T. Boyd, D. Herb, G. Haugh, W. Boyd, D. Marlett, P. Gelet, C. Davis, M. Murdock, R. Smith, G. Lemon. Standing: Mr. Boss, R. Lemon, R. Fochler, D. Woods, L. Aldridge, T. Campbell, T. The Scotland thinclads once again showed their class in District 3 track and field competition. They took the Franklin County championship with ease and added trophies in the Shippensburg Invitational Meet and in the regional Class C meet at Lancaster.

Here a puffing Bob Hayden makes a clean handoff to Richard Fochler in the 880 relay.

BASEBALL

Coach WAYNE MADER and high school principal MR. JANNUZI, an avid fan of the team, are more than just interested bystanders as an umpire's decision goes against us in a close play at the plate.

1960 BASEBALL SQUAD

Seated: J. Conrad, T. Gottshall, E. Skillman, R. Fochler, P. Hanyon, J. Barry, J. Snyder, W. Reibsome, T. Schuler, R. Hughes. Standing: J. Negley, J. Deffenbaugh, G. Conrad, Mr. Mader, J. Malone, J. Howard, J. Herr, H. Dorsey, K. Brobeck, W. Brobeck, G. Skillman, H. Brown, Mr. Evans, D. Hughes.

Competing with the track team for players and hampered by bad weather and an inconsistent pitching staff, the baseball squad had a rough time this season. They put on a good show on many a spring afternoon but managed to win over only two opponents, Fannett Metal and Waynesboro, in a fourteen game schedule.

A good shot of action on the diamond as a clean single to center is shown leaving the bat of a Greencastle player.

SWIMMING TEAM

Competitive swimming was added to the Scotland athletic program during this school year. It all began with the finest indoor pool in the area, a good coach, and a group of determined but green young swimmers. M e e t s were scheduled with Mercersburg Academy, York, Hagerstown, and Milton Hershey. The team did not win any of these meets but managed to pile up a few points in the free style, diving, and relay events.

Coach Fred Boss gives a few pointers to his number one splasher, Richard Schreck.

RIFLE TEAM

The Scotland rifle team, known as the Junior Rifle Rangers, was reactivated this year under the direction of Mr. Morgan, Electric Shop instructor and a sharpshooter from way back. The team entered the Susquehannock Junior Rifle League and plans to compete in twelve matches. At this writing, they have won a match and have compiled creditable scores in several others.

THE S CLUB

PROUD WEARERS OF THE VARSITY S

Paul Spittler, Elwood Skillman, and Regis Fochler admire their new varsity sweaters.
